Full spool of solder.

Narrative

On 9-16-26, I worked on my porch in the afternoon, wiring a small circuit for some solar panels. I was at times inside my bungalow, at other times outside, working. I did not leave the apartment complex throughout. Toward the end of the day, I could not find a spool of solder I'd left with the rest of the tools on the porch.

Incident Description

I've since looked for it in several places but cannot find it.

The next day, I made an entry about this theft in my online diary, available at www.bergendahlhawkins.com, in the Diaries section.

As I sell similar solder spools on eBay, I've included a screenshot of a representative, NOT THE SAME, spool of solder.
